Election Day information and data

Polls open tomorrow 6 a.m. to 7 p.m.

More than 1.45 million suburban Cook County residents – a record number – are registered to vote in tomorrow’s Gubernatorial Primary Election, according to Cook County Clerk David Orr.

“Turnout may be low for a primary in a non-presidential election, but voters should remember that the names on their ballots in November are a result of the contests in March,” Orr said. “This only underscores the importance of voting in the primary.”

Here are some interesting statistics about tomorrow’s election:

- 1,451,593 registered voters in suburban Cook County (1,439,415 in 2010)
- 361 candidates in 244 contests, 63 of which are contested
- 9,000 election judges, working in 1,078 polling places
- 34,035 ballots cast during early voting, comparable to the 34,829 early votes in 2010
- The busiest early voting locations were: Arlington Heights Village Hall (1,477); Schaumburg Public Library (1,439); Melrose Park Village Hall (1,385); Centennial Ice Rink in Wilmette (1,373)
- 46.5% of early voters cast Republican ballots (compared with 31% of early voters in 2010)
- A majority of early voters cast Republican ballots in 15 of the 30 suburban Cook County townships
- Barrington (88.5%), Palatine (77%) and Wheeling (74%) townships had the greatest percentages of Republican ballots cast during early voting
- Recent Gubernatorial Primary turnout in suburban Cook County:
  - 2010: 25.5%
  - 2006: 25.0%
  - 2002: 33.4%
  - 1998: 23.9%

A new voter registration card was included in an election information guide mailed to all registered voters last month. Voters are not required to show the card before voting, but it does list useful information including the voter’s precinct, polling location and voting districts. Voters can also check their registration status, precinct, polling place and sample ballot at the Clerk’s website, cookcountyclerk.com/voterinfo, or via the Clerk’s mobile site, m.cookcountyclerk.com.

ELECTION DATA

Election data including voter registration statistics; turnout history; and Post-Election Reports from 2012 and 2010 are available at the Clerk's website. Maps which show where voters cast specific party ballots throughout Cook County, as well as other election data from the past four elections, can be found in the Map Room section of the Clerk's website.

ELECTION RESULTS

Election results for suburban Cook County, not including Chicago, will be available at: cookcountyclerk.com/elections/results.

After polls close on Election Night, the Cook County Clerk's office tabulates and displays unofficial vote totals that include: all early votes; all mail ballots received by Election Day; and all ballots cast in the precincts on Election Day. Precinct- and township-level results are not available on Election Night.

After polls close on Election Day, the clerk's office tabulates all mail ballots received within two weeks of Election Day if they are postmarked by March 17 and all provisional ballots that are verified. By statute, Illinois election authorities have up to three weeks to certify election results.

OVERLAPPING DISTRICTS

Many district boundaries overlap with another election jurisdiction. In those situations, election night vote totals must be combined from different websites. Here is a handy overlapping district chart to help guide your coverage.

MEDIA CREDENTIALS AND GUIDELINES

Members of the media do not need a paper credential provided by the Clerk's office to visit, film or photograph suburban Cook County precincts. However, election judges will require news reporters, photographers and TV crews to show a government-issued or company identification card. Please remember interviews cannot be conducted inside the polling place.

Media Guidelines for March 18, 2014 Election

Attention: Reporters, photographers and TV news crews

If any member of the media plans to visit a suburban Cook County polling place on Election Day, please follow these guidelines:

- Upon entering the polling place, introduce yourself to the election judges before conducting any interviews or taking any photographs.
- Provide proof of your media status – preferably a press pass with photo. Business cards will also be accepted. (The Clerk's office no longer issues media credentials.)
- All interviews must be conducted outside the polling place, so as not to disturb voting.
- Photos and videos can be taken inside the precinct. However, you may not take shots of a voter making their choices on a paper or touchscreen ballot.
- Please ask first, and respect voters and poll workers who say they do not want to be interviewed or photographed.

The Clerk's office explains these rules to election judges during training. If you encounter resistance, contact Courtney Greve, 312.603.0931, or James Scalzitti, 312.603.0991.
