Dear Friends:

The March 15, 2016 Presidential Primary shattered modern-day records going back more than 25 years. The popularity of initiatives such as Online Voter Registration and Election Day Registration, as well as registration and voting for 17-year-olds, proved there is a great desire by voters to take part in the electoral process. This was the first presidential election to include Election Day Registration and voting by 17-year-olds who will be 18-years-old by the General Election – offerings we found to be very popular with suburban Cook County voters.

This 2016 Presidential Primary Post-Election Report takes a comprehensive look at the voting totals, trends and statistics during the March primary throughout suburban Cook County. Below is a sample size of the standout primary numbers:

- Voting before Election Day – by mail, or during early voting and grace period voting – accounted for 22 percent of all ballots cast in this election.
- Early Voting set a new primary record with 113,641 ballots cast in a Presidential Primary.
- More than 23,000 suburban Cook County voters took advantage of Election Day Registration.
- Nearly 4,400 17-year-olds voted, accounting for 62 percent of the 7,085 who registered to vote.
- Donald Trump won 25 of the 30 Suburban Cook County Townships, garnering his best total in Stickney Township, with 62.1 percent of the vote.
- Hillary Clinton and Bernie Sanders were separated by just nine votes in Norwood Park Township (Clinton: 1,859; Sanders: 1,850).
- Roughly 80 percent of Election Day registrants hold an Illinois driver's license or state ID that shows the address at which they registered. Automatic Voter Registration, which I support, would have registered all of these people, speeding up polling place voter check-ins.

The election broke numerous other records for a suburban Cook County Presidential Primary election, including: overall turnout, number of mail ballots returned, and number of registered voters.

As always, this report is available at cookcountyclerk.com.

Sincerely,

David Orr

RECORD TURNOUT IN PRESIDENTIAL PRIMARY

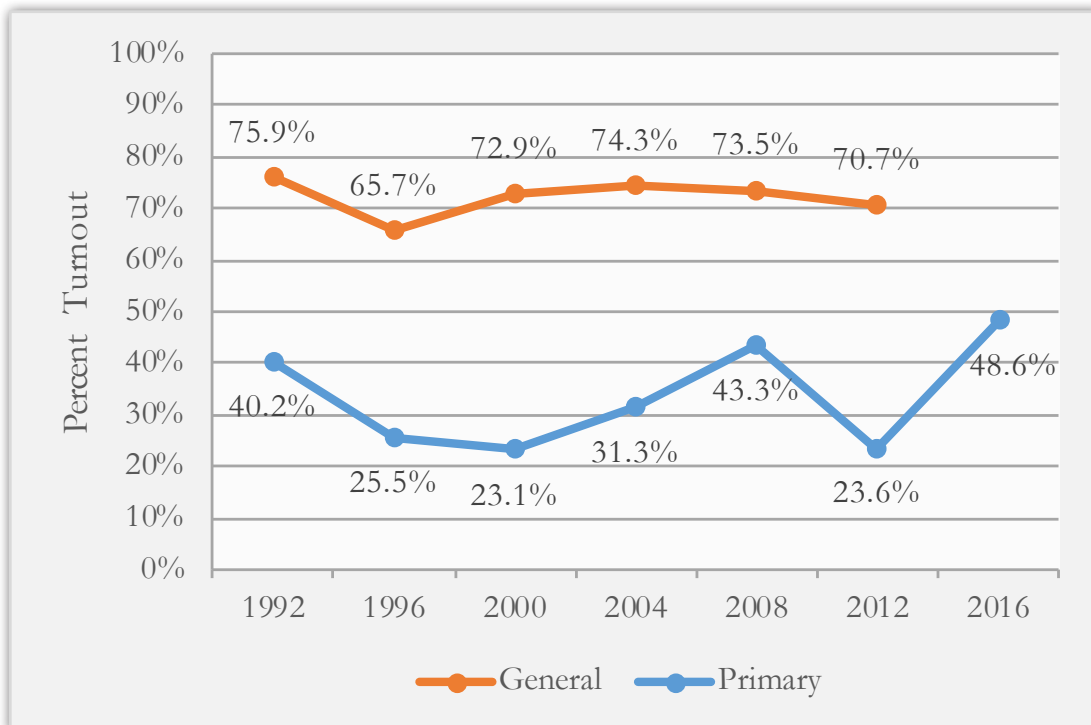

Suburban Cook County voter turnout climbed to an all-time high for a presidential primary election at nearly 49 percent. Aside from the presidential races, numerous hotly contested races — including the race for Cook County State’s Attorney — contributed to increased participation.

The record-setting turnout can also be attributed to recent popular programs such as Election Day Registration and voting by 17-year-olds who will be 18-years-old by the General Election. Cook County and Illinois have made access to the ballot easier than ever — resulting in a surge in voter registration and participation.

MODERN-DAY RECORD NUMBER OF REGISTERED VOTERS IN A PRESIDENTIAL PRIMARY

The 2016 Presidential Primary had a record number of registered voters. There were 48,000 more registered voters in this year's primary than the 2012 primary record of 1,394,649.

Various outreach efforts and programs helped add eligible voters to the rolls, two of which were implemented for the first time in a presidential primary: Election Day Registration and 17-year-old voting. Together, the two programs added over 30,000 eligible voters.

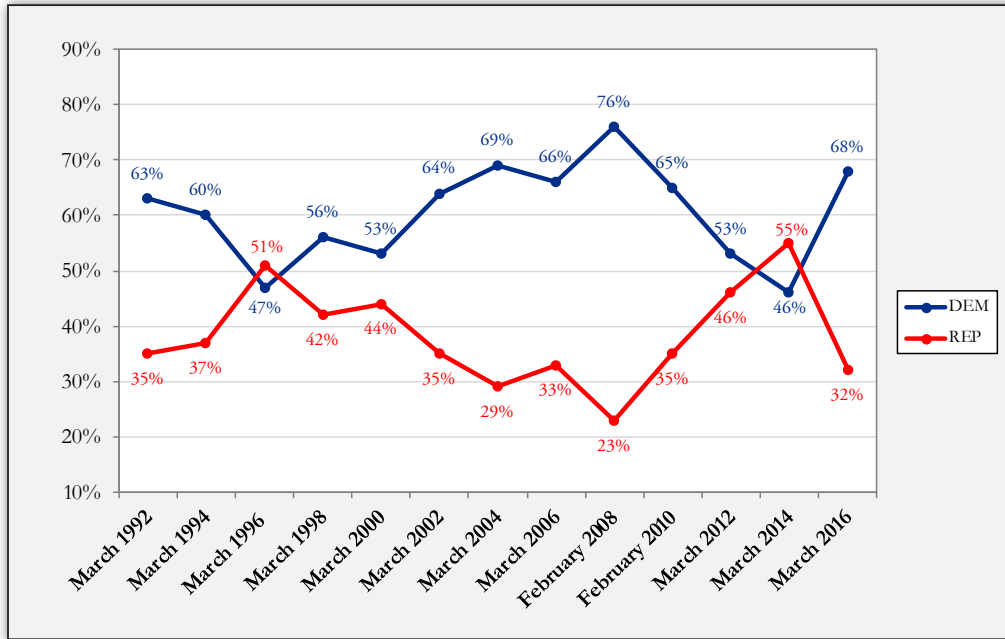

Over 7,000 new 17-year-old voters who will turn 18 by the November election were added to the rolls through dozens of events held at suburban Cook County high schools.

Election Day Registrations Suburban Cook County March 15, 2016 Presidential Primary Election

Election Day Registration was offered in all precincts as well as the Clerk's downtown office on Election Day. There were 23,123 Election Day Registration ballots cast on March 15, 2016.

ELECTION DAY REGISTRATION OVERWHELMINGLY POPULAR WITH YOUNGER VOTERS

The March 15 Presidential Primary was the first election in which Election Day Registration was available in every precinct. It proved to be very popular with voters, especially younger ones. Of the 23,123 voters who registered and voted on March 15, 49 percent were between 17 and 29 years old. The overwhelming majority of Election Day Registration voters took Democratic ballots (81.3 percent) over Republican ballots (18.5 percent). More women (54.4 percent) than men (45.6 percent) were Election Day Registration voters.

AN ONLINE PRESENCE IN THE PRESIDENTIAL PRIMARY

For the first time in a presidential primary, voters were able to register to vote and apply for a mail ballot online. The implementation of these new initiatives resulted in record-breaking numbers in almost every category.

Aside from a surge in numbers, the Clerk's online presence also helped Election Day run more efficiently. Online registration, mail ballot applications and the Clerk's Voter Information Tool increased voter registration and turnout while decreasing lines by allowing eligible residents to register to vote and find their polling place from the comfort of their own home.

The Clerk's social media pages also contributed to the successful presidential primary. Knowing that voters and media alike would need quick access to information and an open dialogue, the Clerk's office utilized Twitter and Facebook to address questions and monitor voters' experiences, as well as provide useful updates and information.

Although we're wrapping things up here, I would like to take a moment to thank the thousands of people who gave their time last week to help make this election run as smoothly as possible.

The Election Judges, Equipment Managers, Rovers, Technicians, Site Managers and Dispatch Assistants are truly some of the most important assets the Clerk's office has on #ElectionDay. Without these citizens we would be without the cornerstone of our electoral process.

Our Election Day Call Center is a hub of activity. Some 70 hotline workers answer more than 5,000 calls from pollworkers to ensure that polling places are open on-time, that pollworkers have the supplies they need throughout the day, and to dispatch staff who address technical issues.

It takes a dedicated team of Election Judges to make sure our 1,036 polling places run smoothly on Election Day. About 8,500 Election Judges, many of them veterans of multiple elections, worked the polls this Election Day.

In addition to visiting polling places throughout suburban Cook County beginning in the morning on Election Day, Clerk David Orr also monitored election operations from his Chicago office, giving frequent updates to media who were covering the Presidential Primary election.

The Cook County Clerk's "I Voted!" stickers, re-designed in 2015, were a hit with Presidential Primary voters. Even after Election Day, voters adorned cell phone cases, laptop computers, and winter coats with the popular stickers.

With his Elections Department staff, Director of Elections Noah Praetz monitored and directed election operations from dawn to midnight from the Clerk's downtown Chicago office.

Young people are enthusiastic about being part of the electoral process. The Clerk's Office held many high school voter registration events this election season, leading to more than 7,000 17-year-olds who registered to vote. Our student judge program also connects civically-engaged high school and college students to work at polling places.
