Clerk Orr gives Election Day tips, trends Mail, Early & Grace-Period voting participation up over '08

Suburban Cook County voters set new records for all three types of pre-Election Day voting leading up to Tuesday's Presidential Election, Cook County Clerk David Orr announced Monday.

Nearly twice as many people registered and voted during the grace period, mail ballot applications surged 41 percent and Early Voting turnout surpassed the previous record set in 2008.

"More than a half million Cook County voters – 20 percent of all registered voters – have already voted," Orr said. "Voters are enthusiastic about this election and have taken advantage of the many convenient options for casting a ballot."

*The 2008 mail/absentee numbers include all ballots that arrived up to two weeks after Election Day. The 2012 number includes mail/absentee ballots returned through early Sunday. Another 15,000 Chicago voters and 20,000 suburban Cook County voters have applied and not yet returned their mail/absentee ballot

Early Voting was five days shorter than in 2008, yet 2,881 more suburban Cook County voters participated and the average daily turnout was 18,854 (versus 13,879 four years ago).

Early Voting turnout in suburban Cook County was greatest in the 2nd Congressional District (20% of registered voters), followed by the 7th (18.5%), 9th (18%) and 6th (17.8%). Thornton Township had the most early voters and half of all early voters were age 55 and older.

The Clerk's office processed more mail ballot applications this election than ever before, likely because voters no longer need an excuse to vote by mail. About 44,500 suburban Cook County voters applied for a mail ballot, up from 31,600 in 2008.

More than 19,000 voters age 65 and older requested a mail ballot, as did about 8,600 voters ages 18 to 24. Voters in Wheeling and Northfield townships applied for the most mail ballots.

Mail ballots will be counted as long as they are postmarked by today and received by Nov. 20. Voters who do not get their ballot to a post office by 5 p.m. today can vote in their precinct on Election Day.

Voters who returned their mail ballots or cast ballots during Early Voting or Grace Period Voting cannot vote in their precinct on Election Day. Election judges are supplied with stamps to mark the application book for voters who already cast ballots. Attempting to vote more than once is a felony.

The Clerk's office will deploy its staff, investigators and state's attorneys to investigate any irregular or suspect activity on Election Day. Voters who witness anything irregular are encouraged to call the legal hotline at 312.603.0236.

Overall suburban Cook County turnout in presidential elections peaked at 75.9 percent in 1992. Turnout was 73.5 percent in 2008, 74.3 percent in 2004 and 72.9 percent in 2000.

Tuesday, suburban Cook County's 1,637 precincts will be staffed by about 9,500 election judges and equipment managers, including more than 2,000 high school and college students.

Orr encourages suburban Cook County voters to verify their polling place before heading to vote on Tuesday. For some voters, this will be the first time they vote since redistricting and precinct reductions following the 2010 Census. As a result, some polling locations have changed.

Suburban Cook County voters were mailed a red-white-and-blue notice that included their polling place information. ## Media guidelines for November 6, 2012 Presidential Election

Attention: Reporters, photographers and TV news crews

If you plan to visit a suburban Cook County polling place on Election Day, please follow these guidelines:

- Upon entering the polling place, introduce yourself to the election judges before conducting any interviews or taking any photographs.
- Provide proof of your media status -- preferably a press pass with photo. Business cards will also be accepted. (The Clerk's office no longer issues media credentials.)
- All interviews must be conducted outside the polling place so as not to disturb voting.
- Photos and videos can be taken inside the precinct. However, you may not take shots of a voter making his or her choices on a paper or touch screen ballot.
- Please ask first, and respect voters and poll workers who say they do not want to be interviewed or photographed.

The Clerk's office explains these rules to election judges during training. If you encounter resistance, call Courtney Greve, 312.603.0931, or Gail Siegel, 312.603.0993.

Keep It Fair

Polling Place Rules for Election Day and Early Voting

This is your guide to fair elections in the polling place, both on Election Day and for Early Voting. Learn about:

- » Where campaigning and electioneering are permitted or prohibited.
- » Proper roles for election judges and official observers inside and outside the polling place.

Cook County Clerk
Elections Department

The Campaign-Free Zone

The Campaign-Free Zone provides an intimidation-free election environment for voters approaching the polling place.

- » Electioneering such as wearing campaign buttons or badges, asking voters to vote a particular way, or leafleting is strictly prohibited within a perimeter 100 feet from the door to the polling place.
- » If a polling place is inside a church or school, the campaign-free zone extends AT LEAST to the outside of the building, even if this is more than 100 feet from the entrance to the polling place room.
- » Campaign workers must remain outside the 100 foot protected area, or “Campaign-Free Zone” if they want to electioneer.
- » The election judges determine the exact boundary of the Campaign-Free Zone.

Voter Intimidation

As a rule, voter intimidation has occurred if a voter feels pressured, threatened or harassed by campaign workers or officials at the polling place. Intimidation is a felony under both federal and Illinois law.

Who are those people at the polling place?

Election judges, including Early Voting workers, are official paid employees of the County Clerk's office. They conduct the election, run the polling place and have the ultimate authority over everything that happens there. They greet voters, check them in and instruct them on voting. Judges are the only people permitted to handle election equipment or official election materials.

Other County Clerk employees may observe, supervise, or assist the judges.

Law enforcement observers include State's Attorneys, U.S. Justice Department officials, and, if requested by the judges or the Clerk's office to keep order, sheriff's officers or local police.

NOTE: Uniformed police or plain-clothes police officers wearing badges and guns may not stand or sit in the polling place as observers.

- » They may enter the polling place only if the judges or the Clerk's office invite them in to resolve a disturbance.
- » Police must leave the polling place when the disturbance is over.

Pollwatchers

Pollwatchers are official election observers with special credentials allowing them to watch the proceedings inside the polling place.

Pollwatchers serve a valuable election monitoring function. They represent candidates, political parties, civic organizations or stakeholders in ballot referenda.

- » All pollwatchers must give a valid credential to the election judges upon entering the polling place. All credentials remain with the election judges.
- » They may observe before polls officially open, during the day, and after the polls close.
- » They have the right to hear the names and addresses of voters as they announce themselves to the judges.
- » Pollwatchers have the right to compare a voter's signature on the application with the signature in the application book (Election Day only).
- » Pollwatchers have no supervisory role in the polling place. This specifically includes precinct captains and other campaign workers.
- » A pollwatcher who observes something improper must notify the judges, and not confront the voter directly.
- » Pollwatchers have the right to a precinct results tape at the end of the election (Election Day only).
- » Pollwatchers cannot interfere with the work of the judges in any way and must not block voter access to the judges' table.
- » Pollwatchers must not touch official election materials at any time, including materials on the judges' table or in the storage cabinet or bag. They must not touch any voting equipment.
- » Pollwatchers must not escort the voters to the voting booths or voting machines.
- » They cannot discuss politics or candidates with voters.

Remember

Candidates must not campaign in the polling place. They must present the judges with a pollwatcher credential with the 'candidate' box checked.

The precinct captain is a pollwatcher like any other—and may observe only if he or she has a credential. A precinct captain does not have any special privileges in the polling place.

Journalists from newspapers, television and radio stations, blogs and other outlets may observe voting in a polling place.

- » Members of the media should have ID from their news outlet such as a business card or broadcast outlet ID.
- » No interviews can be conducted in the polling place, nor can judges or voters be photographed or filmed without their consent (including through the use of a cell phone camera).

Electioneering, or any type of campaigning, is prohibited in the Campaign-Free Zone during voting hours.

Election judges are the sole authority in the polling place.

No person, except a judge, may handle or touch election supplies and materials.

Election judges may expel observers who violate these rules from the polling place. If they persist, judges may have them arrested.

Pollwatcher Credentials (NOTE: There are separate pollwatcher credentials for Early Voting and political parties.)

The Clerk's office will provide a list of eligible write-in candidates to each precinct on Election Day. This list enables election judges to determine which write-in candidates are running in their precinct.

Only votes for eligible write-in candidates are counted. Voters can vote for a write-in candidate on an optical scan ballot or a touch screen machine. While the correct spelling of a candidate's name is preferred, election judges are instructed to accept a vote if the intent of their choice can be inferred from the spelling.

CONSTITUTION BALLOT

PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO THE 1970 ILLINOIS CONSTITUTION

Explanation of Amendment

Upon approval by the voters, the proposed amendment, which takes effect on January 9, 2013, adds a new section to the General Provisions Article of the Illinois Constitution. The new section would require a three-fifths majority vote of each chamber of the General Assembly, or the governing body of a unit of local government, school district, or pension or retirement system, in order to increase a benefit under any public pension or retirement system. At the general election to be held on November 6, 2012, you will be called upon to decide whether the proposed amendment should become part of the Illinois Constitution.

If you believe the Illinois Constitution should be amended to require a three-fifths majority vote in order to increase a benefit under any public pension or retirement system, you should vote “YES” on the question. If you believe the Illinois Constitution should not be amended to require a three-fifths majority vote in order to increase a benefit under any public pension or retirement system, you should vote “NO” on the question. Three-fifths of those voting on the question or a majority of those voting in the election must vote “YES” in order for the amendment to become effective on January 9, 2013.

BOLETA DE ASUNTOS CONSTITUCIONALES
 ENMIENDA PROPUESTA A LA CONSTITUCIÓN DE ILLINOIS 1970

Explicación de la enmienda

Una vez aprobada por los votantes, la enmienda propuesta, que entrará en vigencia el 9 de enero de 2013, añade una nueva sección al Artículo de Disposiciones Generales de la Constitución de Illinois. La nueva sección requerirá de una mayoría de las tres quintas partes de los votos de cada cámara de la Asamblea General o del órgano de gobierno de una unidad autónoma de gobierno local, distrito escolar o sistema de pensiones o jubilación, para aumentar un beneficio bajo cualquier sistema público de pensiones o jubilación. En las elecciones generales que se celebrarán el 6 de noviembre de 2012, a usted se le pedirá decidir si la enmienda propuesta deberá convertirse en parte de la Constitución de Illinois.

Si usted considera que la Constitución de Illinois se debe enmendar en el sentido de requerir un voto mayoritario de las tres quintas partes para aumentar un beneficio bajo cualquier sistema público de pensiones o jubilación, usted deberá votar “SI” para ese asunto. Si usted considera que la Constitución de Illinois no se debe enmendar en el sentido de requerir un voto mayoritario de las tres quintas partes para aumentar un beneficio bajo cualquier sistema público de pensiones o jubilación, usted debe votar “NO” para ese asunto. Las tres quintas partes de los que votan para ese asunto o una mayoría de los que votan en las elecciones, deben votar “Si” para que la enmienda entre en vigencia el 9 de enero de 2013.
